

Web Conferences Supporting Principal Leadership

The Technology-Enabled Teaching and Learning Project (TETL) is a joint partnership between the three Principal Associations (ADFO, CPCO, and OPC) to build leadership capacity for principals in supporting technology-enabled teaching and learning. In collaboration with Curriculum Services Canada, the TETL project team is pleased to announce a complimentary web conference series running from January to March 2015 (Tuesdays from 4:00 to 5:00 pm). The series will focus on how school leaders can use technology to build strong communities for innovation, collaborative learning and sharing.

Registration is limited. Register early and be part of our growing e-learning community. Information and registration details for the final session are listed below.

Registration:

1. After selecting “Register,” you will have the option to login to the Immix platform or to create an account. If this is your first time using Immix, please select “Register” to create an account.
2. After completing your registration, you will receive an automated email providing you with contact information for Curriculum Services Canada (CSC). If you have never participated in an Adobe Connect web conference session with CSC, you are invited to access a training video here: <http://csc.immix.ca/adobeconnect>
3. Login instructions for the Adobe Connect Web Conference session you have registered for will be sent to you two business days prior to the web conference.

*Please note that due to the high number of participants an all mute feature will be used. Participants who need assistance or want to ask questions will be able to contact the Facilitators and CSC via chat box.

Creating a Blog for Professional Sharing - Teaching, Learning & Leading

March 3

4:00 – 5:00 pm EST

The web conference will focus on creating a blog as a 21st century tool to communicate and highlight teaching and learning in the school community. The focus will be on how school leaders can utilize this web-based technology to share school information and their personal reflections about learning and leadership with the greater community. The session will be divided into three parts:

1. Why blog?
2. What tools are available to create a new blog?
3. Sharing Examples of Blogs (A School-Based Blog and A Personal/Professional Blog)
