Meet Cheryl Rock

Principal at Dunbarton High School
Durham District School Board

What work are you doing to support Black students in your school?

“ Building relationships that will increase students’ experiences of belonging and success, I collaborate with our equity team to expand staff’s capacity to identify and interrupt unconscious bias and microaggressions within curriculum and daily interactions. I develop Black Studies curriculum, mentorship and leadership opportunities, expanding Black excellence to positively impact students’ well-being, engagement and success. And I work with our Student Success Team to amplify opportunities for post-secondary access, facilitating pathway planning as students focus on their future. ”
