

The Principal Profile

Kelly Gray

Vice-principal, P.L. Robertson PS
Halton District School Board

How do you work with students to promote student achievement?

“ By building trusting relationships, modelling empathy, setting high expectations and establishing collective responsibility, school leaders can create environments where students feel safe to use their voices, demonstrate their learning and use their passions to solve problems, build skills and ultimately improve their learning outcomes. ”