Scott Carmichael, Vice-principal
River Oaks Public School
Halton District School Board

What role do principals and vice-principals play in mentoring and supporting teachers?

“ When teachers feel supported and empowered, our students benefit. We are passionate about fostering a positive school culture that empowers teachers. We build capacity by creating opportunities for personal growth, making it a priority to listen to the needs and goals of our educators and promoting an inclusive environment where they feel inspired to thrive. Our biggest goal as administrators is helping teachers to become the best versions of themselves. ”
