

Master of Education

Charles Sturt University, Australia

Charles Sturt University (CSU), Australia, has a long and proud tradition of providing Masters-level study by distance education for educators across Australia and around the world. Its faculty of education has over 50 years of experience in teacher education programs and is one of Australia's largest and most diverse education facilities. The education faculty currently has an enrolment of approximately 5,500 students. The faculty has had over 1000 graduates across all its programs from the province of Ontario over the last 10 years.

Quick Facts:

- Recognized by the OCT
- Partnership with OPC since 2007
- Degree developed and delivered in collaboration with OPC/ISL
- 100% online delivery (normal duration 1.25 years)
- 8 course degree; tuition by course
- Courses include: <http://www.csu.edu.au/courses/master-of-education-withspecialisations>
- Prior-Learning Credit for PQP and AQ Certificates – up to 4 of the 8 credits

PQP courses offered by the OPC (with Masters Dimension):

Candidates who successfully complete PQP I and II, where the candidate is eligible, will, be awarded 2 Masters level credits the Master of Education

PQP courses (without a Masters Dimension):

Candidates, where the candidate is eligible, will, be awarded 1 Masters level credit for the Master of Education

3-part AQ Specialists

Candidates, where the candidate is eligible, will, be awarded 1 Masters level credit for each specialist (a maximum of 2 credits for 3 part specialists will be awarded) towards the Master of Education.

Education Law Qualification Program

Candidates, where the candidate is eligible, will, be awarded 1 Masters level credit for the Master of International Education (School Leadership) or Master of Education.

Principals' Development Course

Candidates, where the candidate is eligible, will, be awarded 1 Masters level credit for the Master of International Education (School Leadership) or Master of Education.

Note:

Fifty percent (50%) of the master's degree may be achieved with the prior-learning credits from the noted programs where an applicant is eligible. The remaining 50% must be completed through CSU.

Further information:

<http://www.csu.edu.au/courses/master-of-education-with-specialisations>