

Ontario Principals' Council Director of Professional Learning

Reporting to the Executive Director and working with the Senior Staff at the OPC, the Director of Professional Learning will build on and extend the OPC's reputation for the development and delivery of relevant, responsive professional learning for principals and vice-principals in Ontario, Canada and around the world. There is a salary range for this position beginning at $150,000 per annum.

The Director of Professional Learning will

- Coordinate the OPC's professional learning programs, in Ontario, nationally and globally with a singular focus on leadership excellence to support student achievement
- Be a vital part of the OPC's Senior Staff not only in support of our professional learning activities but for the OPC as a whole
- Lead and inspire the professional learning staff team
- Liaise with school boards to promote a continuum of professional learning and leadership development for all levels of leadership in their districts
- Liaise with the Ministry of Education and other education partners to represent the OPC and ensure programs reflect current realities in schools
- Highlight and share best practice throughout Ontario related to programming
- Identify, procure and/or develop current research and effective tools related to serving all students.
