Honorary Life Membership Award

The Honorary Life Membership designation is awarded annually to members or past members who have rendered exemplary service by advancing or upholding the purpose of the Ontario Principals' Council. Applicants must have made substantial contributions at the provincial or national level to qualify.

A member shall be nominated for Honorary Life Membership in the Ontario Principals' Council by at least 10 members of the local Association or by the Executive.

The nomination must be accompanied by evidence indicating a major contribution to the Ontario Principals' Council at the provincial or national level. (250 words)

The closing date for the receipt of nominations is April 30.

Life Membership nominations will be considered by an Awards Committee at the May Council meeting. The names of the recipients of the Life Membership designation will be announced at the September Council meeting.

The designation of Life Membership will be made at the Annual OPC Awards Dinner. Profiles of the recipients will be included in the OPC Register.
