

Statement – George Floyd Court Case

April 21, 2021

We are pleased to see that the court decision in the George Floyd case has been rendered and a measure of accountability has been delivered. This has been a very difficult time for his family, friends, community and our society at large. There is still work to be done to combat anti-Black racism and anti-oppression. We hope the verdict is one step in the healing process, and commit to continuing our work to learn about the experiences faced by the Black community.
